To T.E.S users

A number of people have asked me to add them to my direct mailing list rather than them having to download the quiz from TES website.

If you want me to add you to the list then drop me an e-mail at:-

simonsquizofthenews@gmail.com

I prefer to have a school email or a mention of your school as my list has been hacked a couple of times and a school email suggests you a real user and not a hacker!

a place, and make in force mores
