

To ensure that you achieve your English target grade, complete the revision activities below on the lead up to Christmas. Each of them will take you between 5 – 20 minutes to complete!

Sunday 1st December Read a newspaper article of your choice. Can you annotate the language features used?	Monday 2nd December Listen to one chapter of 'A Christmas Carol' on YouTube.	Tuesday 3rd December Watch a 'Mr Bruff' video based on one of your key AO areas of improvement via YouTube.	Wednesday 4th December Choose a page from a novel of your choice and identify the language features used.	Thursday 5th December Watch one Act of Macbeth online.
Friday 6th December Revise your language features!	Saturday 7th December Listen to another chapter of 'A Christmas Carol' on YouTube.	Sunday 8th December Read one Act of 'Macbeth'. You can access this online if you don't have your copy of the play.	Monday 9th December Choose an extract from 'A Christmas Carol': identify the themes presented and annotate for language and links to context.	Tuesday 10th December What are the different word classes? Define and add an example of each.
Wednesday 11th December Write the opening paragraph to a letter to your local MP about improving your local area.	Thursday 12th December Find an image online and produce 3 paragraphs considering your AO5 & AO6 success criteria carefully.	Friday 13th December Find an extract from a novel of your choice. Consider how structure has been used to interest you as a reader.	Saturday 14th December Watch a YouTube video based on one of the Power and Conflict poems.	Sunday 15th December How many different persuasive language features can you define and provide examples for?
Monday 16th December Watch a 'Mr Bruff' video on one of your key AO areas of improvement.	Tuesday 17th December Read the most read article on The Guardian website. Consider the language used within the text carefully.	Wednesday 18th December Write the opening paragraph to a persuasive speech about banning homework in all schools.	Thursday 19th December Revise your language features: complete a quiz online or play language features BINGO.	Friday 20th December Listen to a further chapter of 'A Christmas Carol' on YouTube.
Saturday 21st December Find and read a famous speech online.	Sunday 22nd December Find an image online and produce 3 paragraphs considering your AO5 & AO6 success criteria carefully.	Monday 23rd December What are the different sentence types and structures? Add an example of each.	Tuesday 24th December Complete a SENECA quiz based on a key area of improvement linked to poetry.	Wednesday 25th December Happy Christmas! Have a wonderful day!